Rotary's Council on Legislation

Delegates from Rotary's 531 districts will be convening in Chicago to debate changes to the policies governing Rotary International and its member clubs. The Council on Legislation, established in 1933, meets every 3 years to consider changes to the RI Constitution, RI Bylaws, and the Standard Rotary Club Constitution. Over the years, the Council has evolved from an advisory body that convened during a convention plenary session into an independent legislative arm of Rotary International. Council meets 25-30 April and will be considering more than 200 pieces of legislation submitted by Rotary clubs, districts, and the RI Board of Directors, and compiled by RI staff.
