Ballarat East Rotary Club Talk

Last Tuesday night, I spoke at the Ballarat East Rotary club on Rotary in Change based on my experience at the Canberra conference last year. In it, I spoke about the change in rotary clubs reflecting the wider community through gender, cultural, religious and economic diversity, and that community leaders may be more relevant than business leaders. Anyway, I started a whole debate so I didn't have to talk much which was the intent of the evening. Food for thought. Barry Bugle
