As you know we are planning another Shelter Box/Tent display, Uniting Care have been very good in letting us have space at their Jumble Fair which is being held on the Sat 17th Oct from (8am to 9am set up time) 9am to 3pm at the Church Grounds of St Andrews in Sturt St.

We are planning to have full club involvement to this event with at least 3 members on site at any one time, a roster will be circulated shortly to members and friends to get there names and time in early. We will endeavour to have a DVD presentation on the Shelter Boxes in the next few weeks at a club meeting to help new members understand what the shelter box is all about. Obviously the idea with the display at the Jumble Fair is not just to raise awareness of Rotary's Shelter Box program but also money, our target for the day is $1200.00, which is the amount required to purchase a box under our club name. So let's try and make this a successful day, there is no harm in aiming high! Remember approx 50 shelter boxes were deployed in Victoria earlier this year after the devastating bushfires.

Fundraising Opportunity - Ballarat South Raffle tickets.

We have 100 books. If we sell all the books - we make $1600. We are encouraging members to take 2 books to sell. Each book is 10 tickets at $2.00 each.

We have also some plans being developed to sell tickets within the community, and some even bolder plans for members who so desire to dress in clown outfits as the "Ballarat Travellers" did many years ago and go around the pubs. We have 4 starters so far - anyone else feel so inclined? It will be a bit of fun (and you won't be recognised under the costumes and make up). See Geoff Russell at Wednesday's meeting.

Mao's last dancer is based on the extraordinary true story and memoirs by Cunxin Li, who, from the Shandong Province in China, was plucked at the age of 10 from his poverty stricken small village school to train to be a dancer in Beijing. Enduring the strict discipline of the Academy of Dance and suffering the heartache of separation from his family, Li ultimately seizes the gift of his incredible opportunity with determination to succeed. He was later offered to study with one of the top ballet companies in the world, the Houston Ballet in America. Li's fate could so easily have been the anguish of an individual who vanished, like millions of other peasants living amidst the chaos of Mao's Cultural Revolution, but there was to be another and more thrilling destiny for Li. One day he would have to make an agonising choice between duty and freedom. One day he would be regarded as one of the greatest ballet dancers of his time. One day he would be a friend to a president and first lady, movie stars and the most influential people in America. One day he would become a star: Mao's last dancer and the darling of East and West.
